In addition to teaching applied tuba and euphonium, Dr. JOSEPH SKILLEN coaches chamber music, and performs with the Norem faculty brass quintet. He is in demand as a clinician and soloist as well as an active performer in both chamber music and orchestral ensembles.

Prior to his engagement at LSU, Skillen has been principal tubist in several American orchestras, and has performed with touring ensembles across the globe. Additionally, he has presented solo performances on four continents. He has been a finalist and winner in both American and International solo competitions.

In recognition of his musical and research activities, Skillen was awarded the 2004 LSU Alumni Association Faculty Excellence Award. Other awards include a Louisiana Artist Fellowship from the State Department of the Arts and numerous research grants from the LSU department of Graduate Studies and Research.

In addition to his teaching and performing schedule, Skillen is an Associate Editor of the ITEA Journal, the official journal of the International Tuba and Euphonium Association. His articles, reviews, and news columns have appeared in the International Trombone Association Journal (ITA Journal), the ITEA Journal, the TUBA Journal, and the Hokkaido, Japan Euphonium and Tuba Journal. Skillen is also an active arranger for solo tuba and the tuba/euphonium ensemble.

Currently Skillen serves as Secretary of the International Tuba and Euphonium Association. His election to this position in addition to his numerous roles on international adjudication panels, presentations at International symposia, and international committee work continues to show the respect that Skillen has earned from his colleagues around the world.
